Miss Rodeo Illinois Pageant

Miss Rodeo Illinois Pageant Association works to select a Miss and a Teen Ambassador of Good Will who will promote a positive image of Professional Rodeo and the western way of life keeping education, leadership and personal growth in the forefront and doing so with the highest level of integrity.

The Miss Rodeo Illinois Pageant is open to any female resident of the State of Illinois or student attending college who is at least 19 years of age and not older the 26 before Dec. 31, 2014. Candidates must be single, never married, pregnant nor with dependent(s). The Miss titleholder will represent the state of Illinois at the Miss Rodeo America Pageant in Las Vegas, Nev. December 2014.

Miss Teen contestants must be 13-18 years of age. Horsemanship skills are required for both categories. The contestants selected will be named the Miss Rodeo Illinois Lady-in-Waiting and Miss Teen Rodeo Lady-in-Waiting. They will begin their reign Jan. 1, 2014.

Mikhayla is a member of the American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA), National Barrel Horse Association (NBHA), Better Barrel Races (BBR), served two terms as the Illinois High School Rodeo Association (IHSRA) president, Illinois Quarter Horse Association (IQHA), Illinois Ranch Horse Association (IRHA), National Cutting Horse Association (NCHA), Northern Illinois Cutting Horse Association (NICHA) and the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association (NIRA).

She was awarded Horse of the Year 2008-2009 Wrangler Division AQHA scholarship, Wrangler Division Reserve All-Around Champion 2008-2009, Year-end Wrangler Division Barrel Racing Champion 2008-2009. In 2009-2010, she was a High School Rodeo State Finals Qualifier in Goat Tying, Pole bending, Barrel Racing and Team Roping as well as a National Qualifier in Barrel Racing. In 2010-2011, she was a State Finals Qualifier in four events as well as a National Qualifier in Barrel Racing and Cutting.

"I am truly blessed to be serving as the first Illinois Miss Teen Rodeo. It is an honor and a dream come true to be representing Professional Rodeo and the western way of life.

Miss Rodeo Illinois 2013 Cassandra Lynne Spivey

Cassandra Lynne Spivey, 22, is the daughter of Jerry and Cheryle Spivey of Sherrard, Ill. She and her family raise beef cattle and row crops including corn, soybeans, and oats; as well as grow and bale alfalfa and grass hay. She grew up on a farm in the Midwest which led to her country roots to being strong; as her love for the land and livestock continues to grow still today. While rodeo has been a huge part of shaping her life she has been active in many other equine groups and still is today including the National Reining Horse Association, National Barrel Horse Association, United Barrel Racing Association, Cowboy

Mounted Shooting Association, National Appaloosa Horse Association, and National Dun Horse Association, Midwest Stock Horse Association, Illinois State Stock Horse Association, Illinois Quarter Horse Association, AQHA, 4-H, and various saddle clubs. She currently has four Quarter horses bred for running and rodeo. The love of her life is Lucchese, a one-year-old Blue Heeler. She works part-time at the Trinity Medical Center as a Valet and is a full-time student at Black Hawk College studying Business and Business Management and helps on her family farm. In her free time she enjoys riding and working horses, playing with her dog and spending time with friends and family, as well as volunteering in the community and helping to organize events.

Katie Perry

Katie is the 21 year old daughter of Dennis and Cheryl Perry of Peoria, Ill. She is a graduate of Illinois Central College and earned an Associate's degree in Pre-Veterinary Medicine/Pre-Med ; Agriculture and Nursing. In high school she was voted the most outgoing by the student body and won the 2010 section 5 FFA Blue & Gold award, is a 5-time state 4-H Superior Award winner in Veterinary Medicine, 4-H State Qualifier in modeling, baking, sewing, veterinary medicine, horse, visual arts multiple times and winner of multiple 4-H Awards. She plans to attend the OSF St. Francis College of Nursing.

She is a member of the Illinois Ranch Horse Association (ILRHA) where she competes in Ranch Sorting and is a volunteer at the Central Illinois Riding Therapy (CIRT) and helps children in 4-H. She is the 2012-2013 ILHRA +1 Sort High Point Champion, 2010 Reserve AQHA Registered Halter Mare at State 4-H, 2010 7th place State 4-H Showmanship, 2011 10th place State 4-H AQHA Registered Halter Mare; 2011 Reserved Grand Champion Marshal-Putnam County Fair Showmanship winner, 2009 Section 5 Halter & Showmanship Champion; 2008 Section 5 FFA Horsemanship and Western Pleasure Champion, multiple other open show showmanship and halter championships.

Like most young girls Katie dreamed of having her own horse. At the age of 10, her parents bought her first horse. From that day forward, her life has revolved around learning and mastering the equine species. She plans to continue with her passion through the role of Miss Rodeo Illinois and share her love for horses and encourage other young people to follow their dreams.

Kiley Brueggeman

Kylie is the 16 year old daughter of Russel and Michelle Brueggeman of Plainview, Ill. She attends Carlinville High School and participates in soccer and FFA. In her spare time she enjoys fishing, hunting and spending time with friends and family.

Her future plans include attending the University of Martin-Tennessee and would like to study pharmaceutical sales and compete for the UTM Rodeo Team. After college she would like to further her professional rodeo career.

She is a member of the National Barrel Horse Association, International Barrel Racing Association, Illinois High School Rodeo Association, Flickerwood Youth Rodeo and attends many open barrel races and rodeos. She is a 3-time Jr. High National Finals Qualifier and 2-time National High School Rodeo Finals Qualifier. In 2012, she was 23rd in the nation in barrel racing at the National High School Finals Rodeo, placed 4th at the Youth World Barrel Race and was 5th in 2011. She has earned multiple Jr. High Rodeo titles and championships and was the 2009 Wrangler Division Rookie Cowgirl of the Year and has won 4 saddles at open barrel races. In 2009 she was the first runner-up in the IJRA Princess Pageant. If Kylie could have one wish it would be to meet one rodeo or western figure from the past it would be Lane Frost. He was an inspiration to her and 8 Seconds has always been her favorite movie.
